Traditional Moroccan Cooking

Marrakech is a city abounding in intoxicating aromas and rich tastes. Discover Portugal, Spain & Morocco Holidays will provide an insight into the secrets of Morocco's most loved dishes, from typical salads to traditional chicken dishes, couscous and pancakes. A professional local chef will guide your clients in creating new meals and acquiring special cooking skills to showcase to family and friends back home.

Organised in one of the oldest houses in Marrakech, everyone will immediately feel in the mood to experiment with the rich mix of spices and flavours associated so closely with Arabian gastronomy. Given its delicious tastes it is no surprise that Moroccan cuisine is exported throughout the globe. The kitchen is fully equipped with all the ingredients and cooking utensils necessary for budding chefs to whip up a meal that is sure to get the taste buds watering. There will be plenty of individual attention given to everyone as the small group sets about preparing the delicacies that have put Morocco firmly on the worldwide food map. Best of all, after perfecting the dishes, everyone will sit down together to relax and tuck into the venerable feast of taste sensations.
